

Ralph Nappi is a veteran industry executive with more than 25 years' experience leading associations in the printing and chemical distribution industries. Most recently as President of NPES--The Association for Suppliers of Printing, Publishing and Converting Technologies (now APTEch), Nappi led the graphic communications industry's largest trade show (PRINT) and managed the association's thriving international presence in five emerging print markets. He was a speaker at NAPIM's 2016 Conference in Las Vegas on the topic of "Ink to Inspiration: Emerging Areas of Growth for Print." Since his retirement from NPES in 2016, he shares his expertise in leadership, management and communications with corporations and associations in more than 20 different industries.